POLICE REPORT:

- Chief Fitzgerald presented an employment flyer at the request of Alderperson West.
- Officer Lawson is completing her FTO training, and she will be released to solo patrol on October 14, 2024.
- Administrator Agee and Chief Fitzgerald are working on an Ordinance to present to the Council for unlawful possession of tobacco, and cannabis by minors or other unauthorized persons.
- Omar Sosa was in town last week. He has now painted the wood trim, doors, some windows, and other metal portions of the residence at 310 N Pine St.
- The Washington Street development project: Chief Fitzgerald spoke to Tony and was informed they were “really close to start building models, but they had an ex-employee break in and steal 30 grand worth of wire” so that set them back. He is not sure when he will be able to take care of the abatement citation. Chief Fitzgerald explained to Tony that he is quickly approaching the 60-day mark (October 21st) when eligible fines double.
- Lindsey Wise and Chief Fitzgerald are working on an MOU between the City and the School District.
- Chief Fitzgerald spoke with Rich Evans of Global Tech. Rich is working on a quote for three new radios for the squad cars, as well as programming DeWitt County Dispatch channel into our portable radios for when we exit the squad cars.

- ATTORNEY REPORT:

- Lindsey is still working on the litigation regarding 310 N Pine Street.

ENGINEER REPORT:

- No Report.

ADMINISTRATOR/ZONING REPORT:

- Wood Street Sidewalk: The base work for both North and South ends was completed the week of September 30th. Paving is tentatively scheduled for the week of October 7th. Work on the 400 block of S. Wood Street began the week of September 30th.
- Wood Street/Main Street ITEP Grant: The ITEP grant application was submitted on September 30th. It will be several months before we begin to receive any information on the status of the application.
- Community Garden Shed: The garden shed was delivered on September 27, 2024. We initially expected the garden shed to cost $3,325.50 but were able to purchase it for $3,140.75.
- Matt Crawford approached Administrator Agee, and he is looking at putting in some self-standing solar next Crawford's. They will be free standing in the retention pond. Administrator Agee stated he found nothing in the ordinances that states he can't do it. So, Matt Crawford will be moving forward with that project.

PUBLIC WORKS REPORT:

- Mayor Wilkey stated that Superintendent Hoffman's crew did a great job with getting everything set up and cleaned up for the Harvest Festival.
